This Holiday Season, Give the Gift of an Underwater Discovery! National Aquarium offers unique gift options!

Baltimore (October, 2009) – The National Aquarium is proud to announce that in a recent survey of hands raised, not only do children love presents, but they also love marine animals! The National Aquarium offers Immersion Tours, Aquadopts, and Memberships to enhance fun and learning this holiday season.

Immersion Tours

This holiday season give the unique gift of an Immersion Tour! Sleepovers, breakfast playtime, diving, and feedings are just some of the special features included in Aquarium tours. Expert guides will help visitors experience life at the Aquarium from an insider's perspective. Tour participants will discover a world behind the glass that is fascinating and full of surprises.

Aquadopt

An Aquadopt is a unique way for visitors to have their own personal connection to the Aquarium, at home! A variety of the Aquarium's most beloved animals are available for adopting. Adopters receive a special certificate, glossy photo, fun facts, plush version of the chosen animal, a tote bag and admission tickets. Give the feel good gift of inspiring stewardship and education of aquatic environments. Aquadopt-ing helps support the care of thousands of animals that call the Aquarium home.

Membership

A National Aquarium Membership is a great holiday gift option for families! Membership offers unique opportunities at an unsinkable value! Members have unlimited admission all year long and are a considered VIP during visits. Each member receives immediate entry into The Aquarium, discounts, invitations to member-only events, and a subscription to our Watermarks magazine.
